A BEAUTIFUL LIFE.

hands bearing good gifts to the people out, never fear. of Utah. A pure minded, noble woman; noble as wife, as mother and as friend, her special mission was to the with deathless devotion and scattered has others besides the wool interests. all over this lovely county are found young men and maidens who will never cease calling blessings upon the memory of Mrs, Anna K. Smoot. A gentie touch here, a softly breathed word there, a timely admonition to this one, a loving repro of to that. These were her weapons of warfare and what a glorious victory she won with her gentle weapons, let yesterday's general sorrow and the great concourse at the Tabernacle attest. There was healing in her touch, in her gentle voice, in the soft glance of her eye. "Well done thou good and faithful" was the plaudit she received from the Master. It is over with her but her glorious example remains to us here. Shall we use it? Shall we be grateful for it? Shall we profit by it?

Suppose every woman in Utah county lived the true, unselfish and blameless life this good woman has hved, how long think you it would be until ignorance, vice, drunkeness, coarseness, vulgarity and selfishness would be county, how long would it be until its moral excellence, its general intellithe general millenium.

exerted in this narrow sphere? How what the world could be made, were all woman pure, gentle and unselfish and men all noble, honest and earnest in doing good instead of evil. We are among those who believe this example shade of yellow silk, -Chicago Record. is too valuable to be neglected. We would see it driven home to men and women everywhere, of every faith and in all walks of life. We meet them but once in life and what these solitary not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo. O. glimpses reveal makes the desire for more, more and more intense. It is a good thing for Provo and Utah county that this good lady lived, that her home and sphere of labor were located here, that her death occurred here so that ser life's splendid example may be d.iven, completed and perfect as it is, deep into the minds and memories of the people among whom she worked and whom she loyed with a deathless affection.

GLADSTONE now finds that the stoppage of the mints in India has wrought untold and undreamed of ruin. We are in a fair way in this country to find out that the repeal of the Sherman purchase act is off the same bit of cloth. The total wiping out of the influences behind silver min- ened and decorated by the intellect of ing, at least in the west, bad as the man. The surest tokens of this grandeur Sherman law confessedly was, was the in a nation are that Christian beneficence dealing of the young west a staggering blow. Her recuperating powers are great and she will eventually recover, but how much better would it have been for her and the nation as well had the price of silver been kept up until the final policy of the nations had been ascertained! It was like cutting down the tree ere the fruit had ripened, in the expectation that nature would continue her process under the unnatural conditions the robbers had fixed. Heretofore the republican party is chargeable with this great crime. Hereafter democracy will have to take the blame, if she does not at once set about the task of restoring the good old fashioned money of the party. India should prove an object lesson of worth to the madmen behind this repeal scheme. He is cruel who tampers thus with the unfolding west, and the big future hanging upon her rapid and perfect development.

THE Herald often gets the Tribune into a hole but the devilish thing wont stay there. There are other themes than journalistic consistency which we would commend to our Salt Lake friends at times. Changing conditions plays the duce with newspaper history and no where on earth do conditions change more rapidly or radically than in this blessed Utah of ours. This is a new country and some latitude is necessarv until a newspaper has felt its ground over. It is true the Tribune has been here over twenty years and ought to know its mind by this time. but perhaps it doesn't. The deadly parallel is often used but like the boomerang it often returns to plague the thrower.

THE Enquirer was very much distressed, a while since, because Messrs. Irvine & Barney being members of the council furnished goods for the use of the city under contract. Monday night Mr. E. J. Ward had a bill allowed. He is also a member of the council. It is astonishing how quickly the Enquirer has learned to tolerate such infractions of the law. It says not a word in condemnation. What is good for Ward was not good for Irvine & Barney. Verily is consistency a jewel of worth in these latter days.

Electric Light and Colors.

Storekeepers know that the electric banished from the community? It was life. May it not be just as easy for Anna K. Smoot to live this clors as daylight, but they generally use the arc light. The light given by an incandescent lamp is often little dred such women at work in Utah county, how long would it be until its an incandescent lamp is often little less yellow than a gas flame, and this leads some people into error. A daily paper complains that yellow and pink cannot be distinguished by electric gence, its virtuous maidens and manly light; that heliotrope assumes a pinky men would attract attention from all hue, and that many delicate gradations parts of the territory? Aye, aye, from the entire west? We would then here have the initial point of departure for the general millenium.
